Copyright Transfer Letter

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of the JECRC Foundation, in collaboration with the School of Engineering & Technology and the School of Computer Applications, JECRC University, I am writing to formally submit the copyright form for all articles submitted for the 13th International Library Information Professionals Summit (I-LIPS) on "International Conference on Emerging Technologies for Smart Libraries: AI, IoT & Empowerment."

Please consider this letter as a copyright transfer for all conference articles and proceedings.

Declaration

On behalf of the organizers and participants of the 13th International Library Information Professionals Summit (I-LIPS), I/We hereby submit all articles presented at the conference to Advanced Research Publications for potential publication in its associated journals.

We collectively declare that:

1. All submitted papers are original works of their respective authors and have not been published, submitted, or accepted for publication in any other journal or Proceedings.

2. The copyright for all conference papers is transferred to Advanced Research Publications, which shall have the exclusive right to reproduce, distribute, and archive the works in any form (print, or online).

3. The respective authors retain the right to:

   o Use their work in future academic and scholarly activities (e.g., books, theses, lectures) with proper citation.

   o Share their own versions (preprint/post print) for non-commercial, academic purposes with acknowledgment of the original publication.

4. The organizers affirm that authorship of all papers has been properly acknowledged and that no dispute of ownership exists.

5. This copyright transfer applies collectively to all conference papers submitted under the 13th I-LIPS Conference.
